

PERSONALS.

Mrs. F. A. Balch is convalescent. Freddie Carrick, who has been quite ill, is better.

Rev. J. A. Lynch is in Boston this week on business.

L. Burton Jones, of Newport, was in town last week.

Frank H. Preston is at present employed at the freight office.

H. C. Babbitt, from Montpelier, is visiting his mother, Mrs. A. C. Babbitt.

Porte, Eddie and Levi Gray, of Glover, are visiting at W. A. Little's this week.

State's Attorney L. P. Slack was in Montpelier last week on legal business.

Mrs. J. C. Mooney and son, Glen, from West Concord, were in town last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace White spent a few days with relatives in Walden recently.

Miss Carrie Braley is seriously ill with brain fever at the Dansville, N. Y., sanitarium.

Mrs. Charles P. Carpenter is spending several weeks with friends in Boston and Brooklyn.

Miss Margaret Newell is assisting as stenographer in Cross' bakery for a short time.

Mrs. Lambert Packard and Miss Mary Packard are visiting relatives in Methuen, Mass.

Mrs. Spaulding, of Bradford, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Edith Chamberlain.

Mrs. Walstein Morris and E. M. Spaulding returned from their western trip last week.

Little Hazel, only child of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hastings, has been very ill with tonsillitis.

E. L. Hunt is in Boston this week looking for the latest novelties and Christmas goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brooks leave for Boston this afternoon where they will spend the winter.

Hon. E. A. Aldrich, of Littleton, N. H., judge of the United States' circuit court, was in town Monday.

Miss Ella Gaskell entertained a number of her playmates at a party Saturday afternoon at her summer street home.

Major N. P. Bowman was called to Bennington last week to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Soldier's Home.

Paul S. Carter is at Pompanoosuc reporting a legal hearing. Miss Carrie S. Drew is taking his place at Fairbanks' office.

U. G. Goss went to Boston last week with his sister Angie, who will spend the winter with her brother Frank, at Waltham.

Cashier Allen of the Woodsville National Bank and Lawyer Sloane of Woodsville were here Monday night on business.

John S. Meigs has given up his position in a railroad office in Chicago and has secured a better place with a wholesale produce firm.

Mrs. Patrick Mulrooney, who has been at the St. Johnsbury Hospital for several weeks, is now much better and goes to her home this week.

Mrs. George F. Cheney is entertaining her mother, Mrs. A. A. Smith of Randolph, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Parker A. Smith of Palatka, Fla.

Fred B. Stevens has the position of mail transfer clerk at Essex Junction instead of between Brattleboro and South Londonderry as announced last week.

Rev. J. H. Hoffman has moved from New Haven, into the Blodgett house on Main street, and will act as agent for the Mutual Life Insurance company, of New York.

Mrs. C. M. Lamson, who is affectionately remembered by so many St. Johnsbury people, has left Hartford, Conn., and gone to Auburndale, Mass., to live.

Mrs. A. D. Forsaith, from West Concord, and her sister, Miss Celia Hayward from California, and Miss Nellie Batchelder, were guests of Mrs. A. M. Brown last Thursday.

W. M. Kellogg, of Hartford, Conn., a former St. Johnsbury photographer, is here for a short time in the interests of the Guadalupe Mining and Milling Company of Arizona.

John Glynn, formerly of St. Johnsbury, and now of Montpelier, died at that place last Friday after an illness of eight weeks. He leaves in this town a brother, James Glynn, and a sister, Mrs. P. A. Roach.

Rev. John Barstow, pastor of the Congregational church at Medford, Mass., and a well remembered graduate of the class of '79 at St. Johnsbury, spent last night in town as the guest of William C. Tyler.

C. C. Bonette, who was so seriously injured by a fall from his parachute at the Rochester, N. H., fair the middle of September, has sufficiently recovered to be able to travel and went to Burlington last week.

Mrs. Henry G. Ely, who has been spending several weeks with her daughter in Brooklyn, has returned home. She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. G. H. Bradford, of Sherbrooke, who is spending the week here.

Bishop A. C. A. Hall, of Burlington, stopped a few hours in town Friday on his way home from the northern part of the state where he has made official visits. While here he held an informal meeting with the vestry of St. Andrew's church.

Mrs. George H. Frost is doing some very successful elocution work both here and in Lyndonville. She has a class of about 50 in the Academy, a good number of private students here and two classes at Lyndonville, where she spends her Saturdays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Taylor and daughter, Hazel, of Lowell, Mass., were in town last week to attend the wedding of Mrs. Taylor's sister, Miss Maud G. Miles. Also Miss Florence Goss, of Wells River, and Miss Alma Thomas, of Shel-field.

Mrs. A. C. Babbitt entertained the ladies of the Seventy Club Monday afternoon. Owing to the illness of several of the members only a few were present, but a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed and congratulations were extended to Mrs. Babbitt on her nineteenth birthday. Many tributes were paid to the late president, Mrs. Cole, who is greatly missed at these meetings.

The editor of the CALEDONIAN landed in New York on Nov. 7 after a very stormy passage which culminated in a cyclone. Unless subscribers object Mr. Stone will continue his series of foreign letters for a few weeks longer. During his absence the readers have been splendidly served by J. W. Sault, one of the best known journalists in the state, assisted by the regular office force.

Rev. Thomas Tyrie is having the same success as a preacher at Attleboro, Mass., as in St. Johnsbury and no one who knew him here believed it would be otherwise. The Attleboro Sun says that the present series of lectures "being preached by Mr. Tyrie are so forceful, convincing and logical that the suggestion is offered that they be gathered in one small volume for circulation."

Michael Cassidy, employed in the valve department in the shop, has resigned his position and Monday returned to his former home in Boston where he has accepted a similar position with Crosby & Co.

During the last two years he has made many friends by his genial and affable manner in testimony of which about 30 or 40 of his friends were at the station when he left and gave him a farewell handshake.

The friends of Anson S. Hopkins who was 25 years ago a clerk in the Fairbanks scale office will be interested to learn that he has moved from Chicago, where he has been for the past 20 years, and is now connected with the Trail Marble Company of New York, one of the largest concerns in that city.

His oldest daughter is in her second year in the Chicago Medical College, the second daughter is just graduating from Chicago University and the two younger children are in the Chicago high school.

St. Johnsbury Center.

Frank Rogers, of Haverhill, visited at Miss Helen Graves' last week.

Miss Lizzie Ayer, who has been spending a month with friends here, returned to West Somerville, Mass., last week.

Mrs. Lora Craig, of New Hampshire, is stopping at A. P. Brown's.

George and Fred Willey spent a few days at Montpelier last week.

Hiram Sanborn, of Peacham, is visiting T. E. Harriman and other relatives here this week.

H. N. Roberts has returned from Lakeport, N. H., where he has been stopping for a while with his daughter. She returned with him, intending to spend the winter here.

There was a large attendance at the Christian Endeavor convention held here last week.

Miss Eggleston, of East Burke, visited her cousin, Mrs. H. C. Powers, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanborn Worthen, of Manchester, have been visiting at H. N. Roberts'.

Miss Jennie Williams, of Littleton, is visiting relatives here.

The ladies' sewing circle of the Universalist society met with Mrs. George Hallett Tuesday afternoon.

Shepherd Pomona Grange meet with Green Mountain Grange here this (Wednesday) evening.

Rev. J. Hoffman and son, of Littleton, have been visiting at H. E. Brockway's.

Universalist services will now be held here regularly as Rev. I. P. Quimby, of Malden, Mass., has been hired for a time.

At Fairbanks Village.

Mrs. W. L. Heath who has been spending several weeks in Boston has returned.

The Misses Lettie and Emma Beck left Tuesday for Bellefont, Penn., to join their parents who have located there.

Miss Minnie Kelsey has gone to Boston to take lessons in stenography.

Mrs. J. B. Armstrong visited friends at Lyndonville last Thursday.

Mrs. George Merrill of Danville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Hill.

Births.

At St. Johnsbury Center, Nov. 11, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Farham.

At Barret, Nov. 12, a son to Mr. and Mrs. John Coburn.

At McIndoes, Nov. 10, a son to Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Van Dyke.

At Lyndonville, Nov. 12, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cosgrove.

Marriages.

At St. Johnsbury, Nov. 8, by Rev. Edward T. Fairbanks, Fred W. Thomas and Maude G. Miles.

At St. Johnsbury, Nov. 9, by Rev. Edward T. Fairbanks, Harry M. Russell and Ella P. Hicks.

Deaths.

At St. Johnsbury, Nov. 9, Mrs. Sarah J. (Emerson) Smith, in her 68th year.

At Peacham, Nov. 13, Walter Brown, aged 45 years.

At Sheffield, Nov. 7, John E. Paige, aged 72 years.

At Montpelier, Nov. 10, John Glynn, formerly of St. Johnsbury.

At Southern Pines, N. C., Michael Bartlett, formerly of Sutton, aged 84 years.

HORSE CLIPPING.

Having procured a New Priest Clipping Machine I am prepared to Clip Horses on short notice, all work warrants satisfaction. Orders left at N. R. Switzer's, 84 Eastern Ave. will be promptly attended to.

A. H. NOYES.

LET US . . . TALK FACTS.

Our leader in Fleece Lined Underwear we are selling at 35c. a garment. Now for facts—you have been paying 50c. for the same thing. These goods cannot be bought today cheaper than $4.00 a dozen in case lots. We can save you 15c. a garment. Your size is here today, but you ought to hurry, they won't last long. Remember, it's 50c. Underwear for 35c.

Here is another fact: We have 5 dozen Men's Outside Wool Shirts—Shirts you have never bought less than $1.00, $1.25 or $1.50. They are all in one lot, sizes 14½ to 17, and the price is 68c. EACH.

Broken Lots in Men's Sack Suits. About 50 Men's Suits in Striped Worsteds, Plaids, Checks and Black Cheviots. Suits we sold at $8.50, $10 and $12. These Suits go today at $5.50, $6.50 and $7.50. Nearly all sizes.

Boys' Fleece Lined Underwear, 25c.

Camel's Hair Hose, 2 pairs for 25c.

Overalls and Frocks we always sell at 38c.

S. A. MOORE & Co.

Another fact: We are out-talked often, out-done never.

WANTED, FOR SALE, ETC.

TYPEWRITER for rent. A. H. Barbour.

READ THIS OVER TWICE. Fresh invoice choice blend coffee five pound cans sold everywhere for $1.00, our cash price 89 cents. We are agents for the celebrated Forest Mills Graham. Try it once and you will use no other, 6 pounds 25 cents. It will make more cakes than 10 pounds of cheap graham. Number one winter apples, Baldwins, Northern Spy, Pippins, Nodheads, Tolman Sweets. Low price for cash. Wilson Cash Grocery Co., 69 R. R. St., St. Johnsbury.

BROOKS TYLER Dry Goods Co. have a fine line of men's and boys' sweaters. All prices from $98 to $3.00.

FURNISHED TENEMENT. A warm cosy tenement of five rooms and pantry, fully furnished for immediate house-keeping, will be rented to small American family at a reasonable price. Enquire at this office.

TWO FURNISHED ROOMS to let, suitable for light housekeeping. No. 80, Eastern avenue.

EIGHT PER CENT DIVIDEND PAYING STOCK. New Eng. Manufacturing Corporation, Par value $1.00 per Share. Special and limited issue now offered at prices that will net investors from 12 per cent to 24 per cent annual dividends and an advance of 100 per cent, to speculators. For particulars address, Treas. Box 402, Springfield, Mass.

IF YOU LIVE you win; if you die you win. A good investment or a chance to borrow. Conn. Building & Loan Association, M. H. Eddy agent.

WANTED.—A competent girl as cook and for general housework in a family of four. Wages $5.00. Mrs. E. Morris, Hartford, Vermont.

UNION MADE SHOES and Bailey Ribbed Back Rubbers at Bundy's Shoe Store, 45 Main street.

BOARDERS WANTED. 37 Spring street. For SALE. A two-seated sleigh, single runners. Can be seen at Ryan's carriage manufactory.

MUD WAGONS. A few old buggies to run through mud time for sale very cheap. Also a big line of horse blankets for stable and street. Bundy & Weeks, 45 Main street.

SPECIAL SALE. C. F. Gibbs has now a splendid assortment of PALMS, FERNS, BULBS, etc. He will have a special sale of these things during this month. Call and see the beauties.

I am prepared to do the above on short notice and will guarantee satisfaction.

CARL J. GREENE,

Music Hall, Up one flight, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

AUCTION!

The undersigned having sold his farm will sell at Public Auction at

SOUTH KIRBY,

THURSDAY, NOV. 23rd, 1899,

at 12 o'clock Sharp,

HIS PERSONAL PROPERTY,

consisting of the following:

7 cows, 8 yearlings, 6 calves, 50 sheep, 4 pigs, 2 horses, 40 tons of hay, 100 bushels oats, potatoes, 1 new Rollins horse power and drag saw, rake, farming tools, 1 Delaval milk separator, a quantity of sawed lumber.

All sums over $10, 6 months' time with approved notes. Under that amount, cash.

F. R. POWERS.

FRANK SILSBY, Auctioneer.

So. Kirby, Vt., Nov. 13, 1899.

Get Your Clubbing Lists Ready.

Lowest Rates with the CALEDONIAN.

C. C. C.

COOKING, CATERING, CONFECTIONERY.

Having given up the restaurant business I shall hereafter give my entire time to the above lines and am prepared to fill large or small orders at short notice. Turned out for your dinner; catering in all its branches for parties or lunches; fruit punch or ice cream orders promptly attended to. Don't worry about your next party, but let me do the work and it will be done right.

S. D. ATWOOD,
Pythian Building.

STAMMERING CURED.

JOHN L. STANYAN,
(A severe Stammerer 33 years.)

Specialist in the Cure of Stammering,
12 State Street,

Heaton Block,

Montpelier, Vt.

If I don't cure you to your satisfaction you don't have to pay a dollar. Can you afford to stammer when there is such an opportunity before you? Don't wait, but write today.

If you come in person, and are not entirely satisfied I can cure you. I will cheerfully pay your expenses both ways.

SPECIAL TERMS FOR NOVEMBER.

GOLF CAPES, JACKETS and FURS.

New assortment of Golf Capes just opened. Come early if you want one. They are in great demand and hard to get. Prices from $9.50 to $13.50.

We have just received New Styles in Ladies' Kersey Jackets, beautifully lined, and perfect fitting. Excellent values at $10.00, $12.00 and $15.00. Colors Black, Blue, Brown and Castor.

We also show a fine assortment of Misses and Children's Coats at popular prices. All ages from 4 to 16 years.

If you are looking for Furs, we wish to show you our Collection. All the new shapes in Collarettes both plain and tab fronts. Fur Scarfs, Boas, Muffs, Jackets and fur trimmings. Unless you are familiar with qualities, buy only from dealers who have had experience.

RITCHIE'S
DRY GOODS STORE.

Railroad St., - - - St. Johnsbury, Vt.

THE GREAT DISSOLUTION SALE!

HONEST
GOODS,

HONEST
REDUCTIONS.

The same good, serviceable, well-made Clothing that you have always bought of us and paid a living profit on, now Selling at COST and in many cases below the cost. The enormous business that we are doing in Men's Suits, shows what the public think of this sale.

TAKE a look at our stock of Men's Suits. If you can't see desirable up-to-date Clothing cheaper than you ever saw it before in your life, we won't ask you to buy.

Men's Suits, Received this past month. Made to sell for $12, now $8.48.

25 Men's Suits in All Wool goods, sizes 34, 35, 36, that sold at $5.00, 6.00, 7.00, 8.00, now $3.98.

Black 18 oz. Washington Mills Clay Worsted Men's Suits in Sacks and Cutaway Frocks, fine linings, full shoulder facings. .. Warranted fast colors, worth $12 everywhere, now $7.98.

Every Suit in the store reduced in price.

Men's Blue Serge, All Worsted Suits, double or single breasted. Young Men's sizes with double breasted no-collar vest, fast color, made to sell for $12, now $6.98.

Men's Heavy All Wool Suits with double breasted vest, formerly sold for $10, now $5.98.

Handsome Checked, Strictly Pure Worsted

Don't let these chances pass.

STEELE, TAPLIN & CO.,

41 MAIN STREET.